Google Play Music gives you millions of songs and thousands of playlists for any situation. Powered by Google, we serve up music based on where you are and why you're listening, getting smarter and more assistive as we get to know your tastes. Subscribe to create playlists, listen offline, and get ad-free YouTube Music with YouTube Music Premium (where available).

Free Features:

- *Radio based on songs, artists, and albums, plus thousands of playlists hand-crafted by music experts (free in the U.S. and Canada; requires subscription elsewhere)
- *Recommendations based on taste, activity, mood, location, and more
- *Storage and streaming for up to 50,000 songs from your personal collection, at no cost

Subscription Features:

- *Ad-free, uninterrupted listening
- *On-demand access to over 40 million songs
- *Offline listening
- *YouTube Music Premium membership at no additional cost (where available)
- *The family plan, where up to six family members get Google Play Music for one low price (where available)

Good, but not comparable to other music ...
The organization for the app is a bit confusing and feels less user friendly than other apps. There are multiple ways to navigate the app but can be confusing when you first start more

App works well, but CarPlay doesn't...
Keeping it short and sweet, the app works pretty well overall. The only issue I run into is with CarPlay and this app. While the music works fine, you can access all your playli more
